

Policy Concerning Youth Usage of the Scio Memorial Library

No public place, including the library, can guarantee the safety of children. Parents are responsible for their child's behavior.

Children Aged 8 and Under

No children aged 8 and under are permitted in the library unattended by an adult unless they are participating in a library-sponsored program.

Children and Youth Over Age 9

Children over age 9 are welcome to use the library unattended but should not be left alone for longer than two hours unless approved by the library director. A parent or guardian will be contacted if any issues evolve.
