7) I am working on the Annual Report now for the community
8) I am also starting work on the website. This will meet New York Education Department standards and ADA compliance.
9) The first three months of programs are finished, and we will be starting to work on programs for April through June next.
10) I am also working on advocacy, which is our next big thing
11) The first grant of the year for $5,000.00 is here and orders for the John Henry grant should be placed next week.
